

LUTEFISK & MEATBALLS DINNER

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5...it's here again!!!! It is our legendary, much anticipated and widely beloved dinner party extravaganza. And the good news is, there ARE still tickets available, so pick up the phone and make your reservation today.

Desert Trolls toast the success of Lutefisk 2015

Doors at the Boulder City Elks Club, 1217 Nevada Hwy, with a winter holiday theme, will open at 4pm, with food service at 5pm. Along the way, you will have plenty of time to chat with some Norske offspring who grew up in your home state, or one nearby. There will be spirited gals around selling tix for the great lineup of raffle prizes. Rolfe Johnstad will see to it that we have music, Doc Torgesen will auction off 8 great offerings described below, drinks for sale at the bar with cookies at the table.

Long time faithful say this is an event, not just a chance to taste some great lutefisk, and their spouses often say the meatballs and grilled pork are quite good enough, thank you very much.

There will be nice door prizes and $600 worth of quality prizes in the raffle. Tix will be $2, 3 for @$5 and an arm's span for $20. Power tools, restaurants, rosemaling, Norse mugs, Alpaca, jewelry, TRAIN rides, other donations.
